THE SOCIAL WORLD

Vacation Quiet Still Reigns Hereabouts.

MANY HOMECOMINGS

RECENT WEDDINGS AND OTHERS IN PROSPECT.

Socialities at Capital Homes—Dances and Suppers—Personal Notes.

Socially the capital remains as dull as during the summer, and this condition will show little change until after the middle of the month. The lively streets, however, indicate that a majority of West End houses are again open, and both shops and clubs show the old-time activity. The serious Hinds, Mrs. Corley's mother, are matters of genuine concern in administration circles. Mrs. Hinds spent part of last winter with her daughters here, and showed the greatest interest in official pleasures and doings.

Miss Hitchcock is visiting friends at Chestnut Hill. Miss Alice Roosevelt was in New York yesterday, where many of her closest friends are also making brief visits between week-end stays in the Adirondacks, Long Island and Lenox.

Miss Mae Gilmore was given a homecoming reception last night by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Schulz of 733 4th street northwest. Dancing occupied the greater part of the evening, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rabbitt, Mrs. Otis Miller, Mrs. Sims, Misses Julia Davenport, Elsie Throckmorton, Carolyn Bishop, Minnie Browner, Tillie Bailey, Harver, Heater, Messrs. E. E. Highland, Lee Striberger, James Morrow, John Cook, A. Smith, P. Kraft, Walter Lang, Stolph, A. Bailey and F. Hayden. Miss Gilmore has been visiting in the Carolinas.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Granville, 1213 G street northwest, on Tuesday evening, September 27, when their daughter, Mabel, was united in marriage by the Rev. C. Howard Davis of Brooklyn to Mr. Wilbur Dubois of Cincinnati, Ohio. The bride's attendants were Miss Adelaide Putnam of this city and Miss Jeanette Groves of Atlantic City, N. J. The best man was Mr. Howard Beach of Pittsburgh. The bride was dressed in white crepe de chine and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. About 200 friends witnessed the ceremony and a large number of beautiful presents were received. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Dubois left for a month's visit to New York and Niagara and to the groom's home in Ohio.

The Modern Woodmen of America held a social evening at the Typographical Temple Thursday evening, the occasion being the presentation of the banner which was awarded Washington camp for being the largest in the District of Columbia. Many visiting Woodmen were present from Chevy Chase, Hyattsville, Alexandria and other places. After an excellent program, consisting of songs, recitations, instrumental music, etc., State Lecturer for Maryland and the District of Columbia, W. F. Albertson, made an excellent address in presenting the banner, which was accepted on behalf of the camp by Consul J. H. Southern. After the presentation refreshments were served, consisting of cake, gingerbread, apples and cigars.

Dr. E. T. Sowers and family have returned after their summer's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harvey Weed and their three children have returned to the city after spending three months at Norwalk, Conn. They expect to be in town only a part of the winter and are at the Rokeham, having leased their residence.

A party was given by Mr. and Mrs. William Mowrer at their residence, 514 D street southeast, Thursday. The evening was spent in playing games, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses H. Gates, G. Stewart, F. Schuldt, V. Stewart and A. Stewart and Messrs. Hutchins, Dasher, Stewart, Schlager, Moore, Ranton and Mowrer and Mesdames Giles, Boyer and Mowrer.
